

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

The Brattleboro Co-operative Savings and Loan association declared a five per cent dividend for 1918.

Private Victor J. LaMothe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph LaMothe of West Dummerston, died of pneumonia in France Dec. 10. He went to Camp Devens late last June and sailed for France in July.

Rev. Arthur Vincent Allen, formerly director of religious education and assistant superintendent of the Vermont Baptist state convention, began last Sunday the pastorate at the Baptist church in Newport. He is 28 years of age.

The automobile registration office, which has been conducted for the state in Brattleboro during the last eight years, has been discontinued, pursuant to the policy of the state board of control to centralize the state offices in Montpelier.

Walter C. Raymond, a veteran of the Civil war, being a member of Co. K, 16th New York regiment, died in Rutland of apoplexy Friday. He was 76 years of age and leaves a widow, to whom he married 54 years ago; also three daughters and a son.

The negligence suit for $12,000 brought by Frank C. French of Montpelier against the Norton Hardware Co. of Fair Haven, in which the plaintiff claims the Norton Co. had sold arsenate of lead without properly labeling the package as poison, has been discontinued in Rutland county court.

State Food Administrator Frank H. Brooks has announced that specific maximum margins for all dealers in wheat mill feeds, wheat flour, and mixed feeds, are removed—effective immediately. The annual net profits of licensed retail dealers in feeding stuffs, including wheat mill feeds, are still limited to six per cent upon the total gross sales of all feeding stuffs.

John P. Barrett, son of Mrs. Margaret Barrett of Arlington, died in France Oct. 30, according to information recently received. He enlisted at Columbus, O., in the 11th Infantry band, and was with him on the Mexican border and went overseas in June, 1917, with the 18th Infantry band, being band master at the time of his death. While living in Rutland the young man was at different times a member of the St. Peter's orchestra, the Rutland high school orchestra and the Rutland city band.

TESTERS NEEDED IN VERMONT.
A Special Course to Be Given to Prepare Men for Positions.

The shortage of competent Babcock test operators is extreme. Several co-testing associations have been disbanded for their lack and no testers are available for new associations. There are too few to meet the needs of owners of purebred dairy cattle who desire advanced registry testing. Several creameries and milk plants are in need of competent and properly trained test operators. These positions pay from $50 to $75 a month, with board and lodging.

The University of Vermont is offering a 10-day course on Jan. 17-25 inclusive, devoted to intensive practical training of these men. The students in each of the three groups will be given the necessary special instruction by instructors from the agricultural college and the forces of the commissioner of agriculture.

The course will be open to men who now are or have been cow test association operators; to former winter school course students of the university; to former students of the state agricultural schools; and to men who have worked in commercial dairy plants. Instruction will be free but $2 will be charged for materials used and books will cost about $3. For further information apply to Prof. H. B. Ellenberger, University of Vermont, Burlington, Vt.

VERMONT TO GIVE $60,000.

State-Wide Campaign to Aid the Suffering Peoples of Near Eastern Countries.

An urgent appeal is again to be made to the generosity of Vermonters.

Almost untold thousands of people are suffering the pangs of cold and hunger in nearly every country of the Near East—Armenia, Syria, Greece and other countries—as a result of the world war.

America is going to the rescue, in fact is already there with tender hands and money to buy the supplies necessary but more money is needed and the American committee for relief in the Near East will begin a campaign to raise $30,000,000 Jan. 12.

Of this amount Vermont is to raise $60,000. On Tuesday night of this week the organization for this work will have been completed.

Roland E. Stevens of White River Junction is the state chairman. He has appointed county chairmen, who have named the chairmen for the towns and cities and these chairmen have appointed the soliciting committees.

The campaign will last one week. Of all the causes to which Vermont has given, none is more deserving or urgent than this, and every contributor to the fund may rest happy with the assurance that his contribution will be fully expended to allay the sufferings of deserving peoples.

The American committee includes many of the most prominent men of the country, among them being William H. Taft, Charles E. Hughes, Cardinal Gibbons, Henry Morgenthau, John R. Mott and Oscar S. Straus.

This campaign is endorsed by President Wilson, who urges the people of America to be generous in their aid to suffering humanity in the Near East. It is estimated that 4,000,000 Armenian, Syrian, Greek and other sufferers require immediate help. The vast majority of them are helpless women and children.

To such a cause Vermonters will cheerfully give, and let it be said that the old Green Mountain state fulfilled her quota of $60,000 in less than the allotted time.

Every citizen—man or woman—who is not called upon to give to the cause early next week may send contribution to Roland E. Stevens, state chairman, White River Junction, Vt.

Every worker in the cause is expected to be energetic. Every minute spent in this campaign should be a minute of pride and satisfaction.

Vermont's record next week will not disappoint.

One Way of Making Him Safe

People Constipated and Don't Know It!

It seems odd, but it is true, that you may be constipated and not know it. You can see why it is. Take a glass and pour in water until full. If you keep on pouring in water after the glass is full, it will run over, but the glass stays full.

Just so with your bowels: they get full of waste matter, and then they pass off or expel from the body only about the same amount that goes into it in the form of food.

So you may have a movement of the bowels every day and yet there will remain waste matter that ought to be removed.

Give your bowels a gentle but thorough cleansing and you'll feel great.

A fine prescription for this is put up and sold under the name of Dr. Tru's Elder-Balm. Doctors and druggists use it in their own families. Costs but little and brings health to men, women and children. Sweet and pleasant tasting. Works gently. Children like it. Remember the name, Dr. Tru's Elder-Balm.

FUNERAL OF R. C. BACON.

Was Largely Attended and There Was a Profusion of Flowers.

The funeral of Attorney Robert C. Bacon, of the firm of Bacon, Harvey & Whitney, former chairman of the Vermont service commission, was held in St. Michael's Episcopal church in Brattleboro Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock and was largely attended. Many of the business and professional men of the town were present, also most of the members of the Windham county bar and several lawyers from other parts of the state. There was an especially large and beautiful display of floral remembrances from organizations and individuals.

Rev. Walter C. Bernard, rector of the church, offered prayer in the home where Mr. Bacon's death from pneumonia occurred Thursday morning, and from 1:30 to 3 o'clock the body lay in state in the church, where it was seen by many townspeople and others. Rev. Mr. Bernard then officiated at the funeral service, and during the funeral the curtains were drawn in the various stores and offices. Miss Letitia M. Stewart presided at the organ.

The burial took place in Morningstar cemetery, Brattleboro, the bearers being Col. J. Gray Estey, Attorneys John N. Harvey and Harold E. Whitney, and William H. Proctor, all of Brattleboro, Judge Warner A. Graham of Bellows Falls and Fred C. Gale of New York.

Mr. Bacon's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Wheatley of White River Junction, attended the funeral, and besides others mentioned there were present Park H. Pollard of Chester, a former member of the public service commission, of Manchester, ex-Attorney General J. G. Sargent of Ludlow, Judge Addison Cudworth of South Londonderry, Attorney W. B. C. Stickney, Attorney E. W. Lawrence and Miss G. Sadie Smith, court reporter, of Rutland, and Miss Ethel Goodall of Springfield, Mass.

Canada's Offering.
The Dominion of Canada, whose interest in the war in Europe was essentially the same as that of the United States—its direct or local interest not affected, but its honor attacked and its future welfare threatened—entered the war instantly, and its soldiers gained at once a position in the forefront of the battle.

The losses of the Canadian overseas forces, revised according to the latest reports, are now put on record. They show a total of 35,666 killed in action, as compared with the 29,965 Americans killed in action so far as now reported; of 12,430 died of wounds, against the 11,795 in our reports; of 5,405 dead of disease, as compared with 17,343 in our expeditionary forces; and of 155,799 wounded, against our 129,310. Our total of overseas casualties thus far reported is 209,531, against the Canadian figure of 52,861. It is to be said, however, that the Canadian reports are evidently regarded as complete, whereas we may have some thousands yet to come. But it is apparent that the Canadian and American overseas losses will in the end very nearly balance. As we have a disastrous record of some 30,000 dead from disease in the United States, we are likely to exceed the Canadian total in the final account.

But naturally we shall not exceed it in any such proportion as the excess of our population over Canada's. The dominion has made, for the cause of civilization and its motherland, a great and signal sacrifice. Its record in the war is one of which its people may be proud forever. For the Canadian people it is a heritage of imperishable honor—Boston Transcript.

Miss DeBoer Bride of Asst. Paymaster.

On New Year's day Miss Minnie DeBoer was married to Assistant Paymaster Kenneth Goss. The bride is the daughter of the late Joseph A. DeBoer of Montpelier and the groom is a resident of Montpelier. Mr. Goss joined the navy soon after our entrance into the war and has been across several times.

The wedding took place at the home of the maid of honor, Miss Sara Kimball, and her brother, the best man, Robert Kimball, at Phillips Beach, Mass. About 60 people were present.

The bride wore her mother's wedding dress of white satin. She was given away by her mother, Mrs. Coates of Albany, N. Y., who wore a dress of violet chiffon.

After the ceremony refreshments were served and about 8 o'clock the bride and groom left for their honeymoon. The bride's going away suit was a blue velvet skirt and chignon waist with a short fur coat.

Among those present were the bride's sister, Miss Elizabeth DeBoer, who graduated from Bishop Hopkins Hall last June and is now attending Simmons college, and Mrs. Paul DeBoer and the bride's older sister, Mrs. Ethel Field.

RHEUMATISM

Physician Believes a Genuine Remedy for the Disease Has Been Found.

Rheumatism, the wonderful rheumatism remedy sold by E. A. Drown & Co. and all druggists, gives quicker and more lasting relief than other remedies costing many times as much.

Rheumatism passes the deadly poisonous secretions into the bowels and kidneys, from which they are quickly thrown off in a natural, healthy way.

Read what a reputable physician says about Rheumatism: "I have known the employment of the formula employed in the manufacture of Rheumatism, and I heartily recommend it as a remedy for all forms of rheumatism. I find Rheumatism to be the result of the general employment in the treatment of rheumatism, and altogether different in composition from the remedies usually prescribed."

Dr. M. C. Lyons.
This should give any sufferer from rheumatism confidence to try Rheumatism—Adv.
